

PROBATCH™

electronic batch dispense system

Accurately dispenses multiple-color, plural component paints

Software Solutions

PrecisionView AMR 2.0 software option allows the user to program recipes from a desktop computer and link to other Graco products to produce consolidated reports. AMR 2.0 also easily integrates production data with other plant databases, and is compatible with ODBC and SQL-compliant applications, including Microsoft® Excel, Word, Access and others.
